

Investment opportunities available in the construction of a robust healthcare system

The panelist group included a diverse representation of early, growth and tech-focused healthcare investors who spoke about each of their investing philosophies. TCHF representative, Visalakshi spoke about the macro and micro opportunities in the Indian healthcare sector from a 2D perspective viz. disease and demographics. She additionally highlighted the Fund's core investment strategy in terms of 'Domestic Consumption' and 'Global Competency' themes and emphasised that there is room for both impact and profitability to co-exist in a healthcare investment.
